PUBLIC EDUCATION, MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION AND PUBLICATIONS

Information and publications include material sent on a regular basis to HSUS constituents. The Media Relations department distributes national and local press releases on a full-range of animal protection and program issues, ranging from pet tips, to special events such as National Dog Bite Preventions Week, to legislative issues, to rewards offered in cruelty cases. The HSUS web site provides information on many of the issues addressed by the organization, as well as providing an avenue for direct action. The Animal Channel portion of the site, under the direction of the Video Project department, uses innovative technology to stream audio and video messages and news reports about animal issues. The video department produces an Internet "channel" also named Animal Channel, which is available to more than 60 million people, and also produces public service announcements, news and information video segments, and awareness videos for television, radio, and for use by activists and the general public.

INVESTIGATIONS AND REGIONAL OFFICES

The Field Services division and the Investigations department conduct national and local investigations into cruel and inhumane treatment of companion animals, farm animals, wildlife and animals in research. HSUS investigators have uncovered abuses in the transport, handling, and sale of horses for slaughter; puppy mills; "canned" hunts ; circuses; zoos; animals shelters; and wildlife refuges, among others. The HSUS conducted an 18 month long investigation into the killing of dogs and cats for fur that won national and international attention.

WILDLIFE AND ANIMAL HABITAT

The Wildlife department is one of the organization's largest and encompasses activities related to fur and trapping; captive wildlife; wildlife refuges; endangered species; wildlife contraception; predator control; migratory birds; wild animals as pets; wild horses; marine mammals; national and international wildlife issues. A public outreach program is aimed at solving urban wildlife problems by helping people to live humanely with their wild neighbors. The HSUS also maintains a year-round Wildlife Rehabilitation and Training Center.

COMPANION ANIMALS AND ANIMALS SHELTERING

The HSUS works with the general public and the animal protection community to reduce pet overpopulation; assist people in becoming more responsible pet owners; provide advice, support and guidance to the animal-protection professionals who have hands-on responsibility for millions of animals; and generally improve the lives of animals who are our closet companions.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE, LITIGATION, LEGISLATION AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

The General Counsel's office provides legal assistance, guidance, and support to other HSUS departments, divisions, and offices on both animals programs and business matters. It also provides such assistance to other humane societies, HSUS members, and the HSUS board of directors. The HSUS government affairs department monitors federal, state and local legislation involving wild, captive, and domestic animals. In addition, the government affairs department seeks to educate constituents, the general public, government officials, and others on legislative matters concerning animal protection, and alerts concerned parties to legislation that will help, or harm animals.
